

9/23

- What do you want to be when you grow up?
Why?

EMPLOYMENT

Vocabulary Activity:

- On your paper above the line, write what you think the word mean.
- After you are done, I will give you the definition and you can make your adjustments below the line.

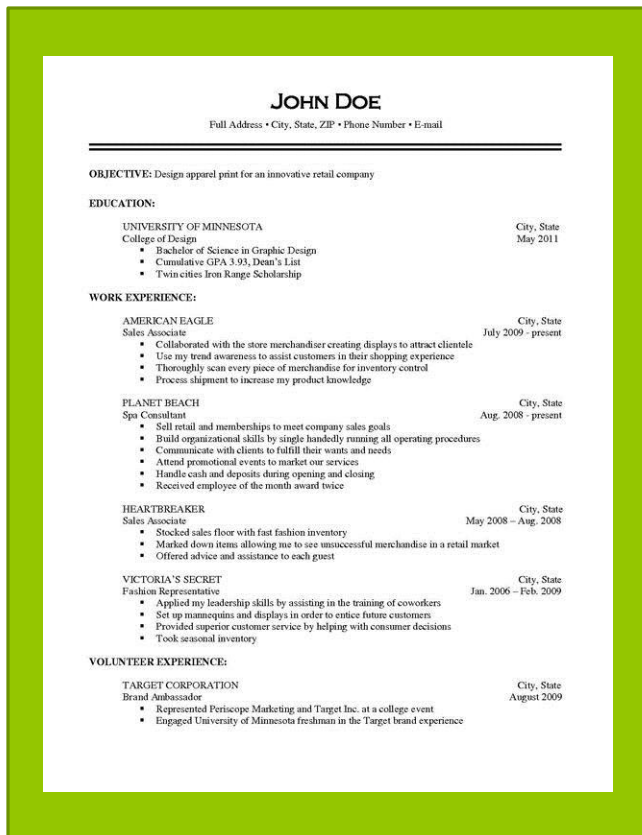

What you think the word means

Any corrections needed

RESUME

- A document used in hopes to obtain employment.
 - Each resume should be tailored to the type of job being applied for.

The look of the resume depends on the job...

WORK ETHIC

- Is a value based on hard work and diligence.
 - Never stopping until the job is done.
 - Someone with high work ethic gains great satisfaction from giving their best at work.

REFERENCES

- People that would give good recommendation concerning a specific job.
 - These people are sometimes listed on the resume.
 - Employers often call references to find out more about the future employee they're considering hiring.

Sure, I'll say something good about you!

TERMINATED

- The condition of taking employment away.
 - Laying off means there usually isn't enough money to support an employee's job. This usually has nothing to do with employer's satisfaction with employee.
 - Fired means the company is not happy with employees work and has decided to remove them.

ASSOCIATES DEGREE

- A degree that usually takes 2 years to receive after high school.
 - Usually only general classes
 - Math
 - English
 - Science
 - History

BACHELOR DEGREE

- A more specialized degree that usually takes 4-5 years to receive after high school.
 - Specialization or a major of study
 - Given by Universities

EMPLOYABILITY SKILLS

- o Skills that are liked by employers.

Employers often pick employees that possess these set of skills.

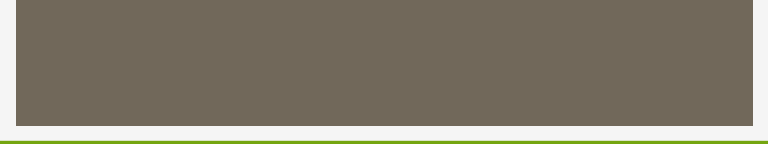

Skills Employees are looking for:

- The following are certain skills employers find desirable for an employee:
 - Communication Skills
 - Honesty and Integrity
 - Teamwork Skills
 - Interpersonal Skills
 - Strong work ethic
 - Motivation
 - Flexibility
 - Analytical
 - Computer skills
 - Organizational

PROMOTION

- When an employee jumps to a higher position because they've exhibited hard work and capabilities.

How can CTE
classes prepare you for employment
now?

CTE PATHWAYS

CTE Video

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ZR3LiZ93IA>

Let's Practice!

- Fill out the Jamba Juice Application like it's the real thing!
 - Keep in mind employers want employees that have the skills we just talked about.
 - How can you present yourself best on paper?
 - Is correct grammar something employees are looking for?
 - For an application, would you use a pen or pencil?

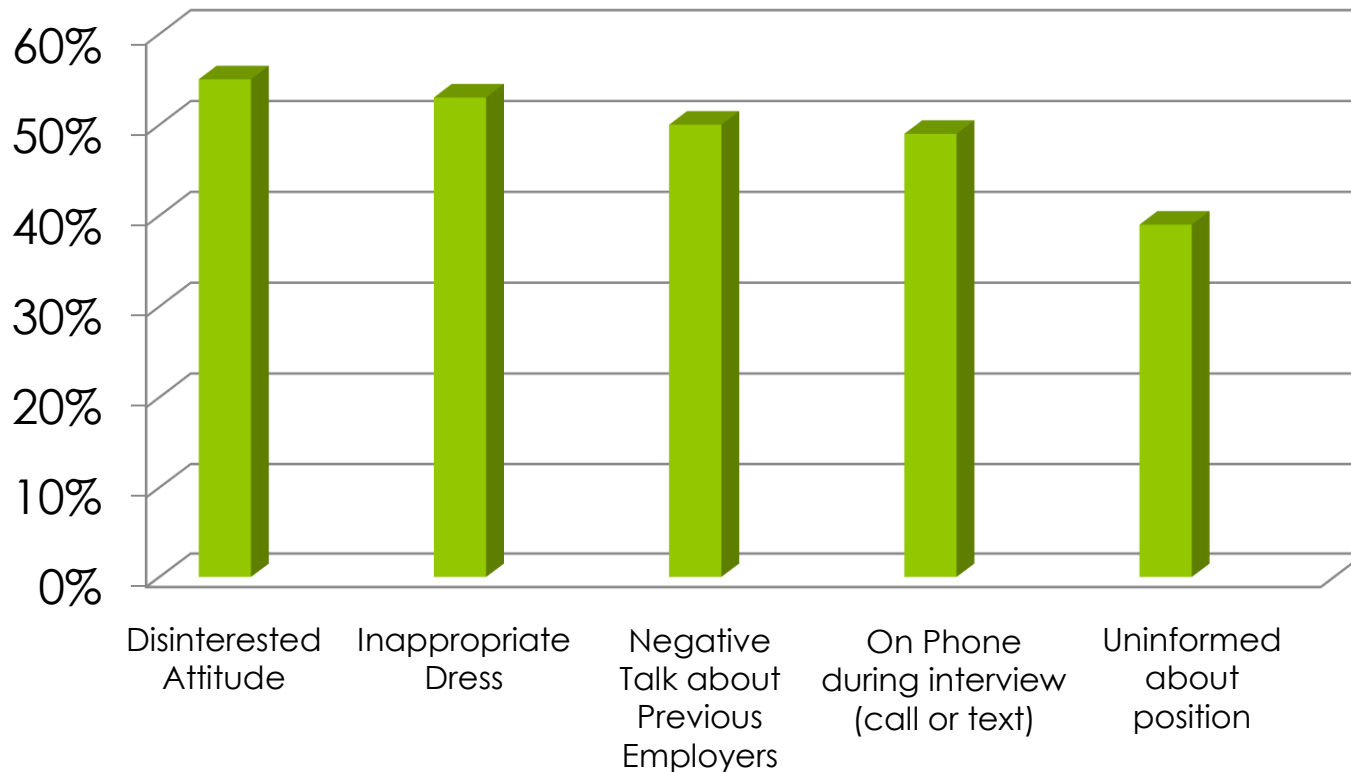

Job Interviews

- These can be very tedious and stressful, so it's good to practice beforehand.
- Make sure anytime you have an interview, you dress for success!
- Common questions:
 - What is your greatest weakness?
 - How do you deal with conflict?
 - How would your best friend describe you?

Interview No No's

According to employers, the top most detrimental blunders candidates make in interviews are often the most common:

Let's Practice!

- You will be in groups of 2.
- You will practice being interviewer and interviewee.
- Ask the questions listed.
- Interviewer will evaluate interviewee.

